Reporting bodies

The Children's Guardian Act 2019 defines all organisations, agencies or bodies to which the Reportable Conduct Scheme applies as relevant 'entities'.

The heads of relevant entities must notify the Office of the Children's Guardian of all reportable allegations and convictions. That includes the inside work conduct of all employees and outside work conduct of employees of Schedule 1 entities and of any relevant entities where a volunteer or contractor required to hold a Working with Children Check.

These notifications are made under the Reportable Conduct Scheme.
